Social and Personal

The Cecilian Club resumed its work for the season 1919-20, Wednesday afternoon at Cumberland View the home of the President, Mrs. T. D. Chenault. The programme arranged by the host was in two divisions by American composers. The first part was miscellaneous, the second confined to one composer, tho' unfamiliar not by any means obscure—John Mokreys of Bohemian, parentage, but a native of Iowa. The piano numbers from Mokreys were given by Mrs. Harvey Chenault, Mrs. Olin Green, Mrs. McGaughey, and a lovely group of songs were rendered by Miss Metcalf in her usual happy manner. The Club was greatly pleased to welcome to its membership a young artist of whom Richmond is most proud. Miss Marie Louise Kellogg was known as a musical prodigy from her earliest childhood, and now she comes back to us after years of study, a polished pianist ready and willing to contribute her quota to the musical progress of Kentucky. Miss Kellogg complimented her teacher, Mr. Boyle, by playing one of his own compositions which was received by the club and guests present with great enthusiasm.

Mrs. Chenault had also prepared some delightful surprises for this opening session. Mrs. Henry T. Duncan, chairman of the Music department, of the Woman's Club at Lexington, was the guest of the afternoon, and sang a lovely group of songs by Burleigh and Sidney Homes. Mrs. Duncan has a rich contralto voice that gets the attention of her audience on the first note and holds it to the end. And again the audience was delightedly entertained in the reading of the "Legend of Minerva" by Miss McMillan of the State Normal. The piano accompaniment was played by Miss Brown M. Telford, in a most pleasing and sympathetic style another contribution from the meetings of Mokreys. Mrs. Chenault had received a letter from Mr. Mokreys, which was read by Miss Helen Bennett, showing the composer a gifted writer of festive imagination tinged with a sense of humor, that was quite attractive.

The out of town guests were: Mrs. Henry T. Duncan, Mrs. C. D. Chenault, of Lexington, Mrs. Nelson Gay, Mrs. Jones, of Winchester, Mrs. Mehanagan, of Chicago, Mrs. VanMeter of Lexington and Miss Maud Rollins Reid, who is the guest of Mrs. Harvey Chenault.

MRS. SANFORD'S MESSAGE TO WORKING WOMEN

Laurel, Miss. — "Eight years ago I was suffering with pains and weakness caused by a female trouble. I had headaches, chills and fevers, and was unable to do my work part of the time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me and I took twelve bottles of it, and my health has been good ever since. I am able to run the machine and do dressmaking besides my housework. You are at liberty to publish my letter if it will help some poor suffering woman." —Mrs. J. C. SANFORD, 1237 Second Ave., Laurel, Miss.

Thousands of women drag along from day to day in just such a miserable condition as was Mrs. Sanford, or suffering from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, sideache, headache, nervousness, or "the blues."

Such women should profit by Mrs. Sanford's experience and try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and find relief from their sufferings as she did.

For special suggestions in regard to your ailment write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of their long experience is at your service.

Home from a pleasant visit to her sons, J. C. Allman, of Fomdu Lac, Wis., and Donelson, Allman, of Noblesville, Ind.

Hon. C. L. Searcy, Mrs. Searcy, Mrs. James Wagers, and Mrs. Walker Stuart had a pleasant motor trip to Winchester, Paris, North Middletown, Tuesday.

Mrs. R. C. Williams and Mrs. Geo. Shipman and daughter, have returned to their home in Shelbyville after a visit to Mrs. James Deatherage on the Lexington pike.

Mrs. Clifton Weaver has returned from Lexington, where she was called to the bedside of her sister, Mrs. W. F. Bacon. Mrs. J. R. Davis, of Paint Lick, will remain with her sister until her condition improves.

Our Weights Will Stand The Test

When we sell you a bill of groceries or send you a meat order, we see to it that the weight is correct. It is an easy matter for others to quote low prices, and perhaps make up for the difference in weights. It is your duty to report anyone making a practice of this. The Government will appreciate it too. When you want full weight and value for your money, we invite you to trade with us. We deliver the goods.
